WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1867.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1893.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1907

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

NOW FATHER IS SKATING, TOO.

Oh, father, dear father, come out to the rink,
For mother's awaiting you there;
She is dreaming of days when you wooed her and won,
And called her tender and fair.

Poor mother, poor mother, her life has been hard,
Her hair is now sprinkled with gray,
And she's slipped from the kitchen, the pots and the pans
To live once again in life's May.

Oh, father, dear father, pray come to the rink,
And again, as in halcyon days,
Come and glide with your bride o'er the smooth,
Polished floor,
And practice love's tender sweet ways.

And smooth the poor brow that grew wrinkled
With pain—
Be children again for a day—
And let the long years of life's sorrow and pain
Like dreams fade and vanish away.

O, sweet expectation, dear father has come,
(To mend it is never too late,
He has brought all the children, and Mary, the cook,
And is teaching them all how to skate.

"A Texas Steer" is far and away the best of the Hoyt productions and combines all the essentials of the successful farce comedy. The Hoytian Satire in unlimited measure, a touch of the musical, another of horse play, still a third of genteel society, while over all rises the very broadest style of humor. The date for this company's appearance is Monday, November 25th at the Washington Theater.

Monumental Murray & Thomas.

Owing to the money stringency, the L. and N. pay car which is due in this city about the fifteenth of each month, has up to date, failed to put in its appearance. Rumors are being circulated that the company will pay off in script or only allow its employees thirty cents on the dollar until the money scare is brought to an end.

Mr. David C. Frazier, formerly of this city, is reported seriously ill at his home in Lexington.

Chief of Police Ort was notified yesterday by letter to be on the lookout for one Wine, aged 60 years, who represented himself as an agent of the Knights of Maccabees of the World, with headquarters at Port Huron, Mich. The old reprobate was run out of Vanceburg Tuesday by enraged citizens for unbecoming conduct with two little girls, aged 6 and 9 years respectively. He evidently became alarmed at his treatment in our sister city and gave Maysville the go bye. Possibly it's well that he did.

The Louisville Times, in its notes of Fraternal Orders, says in its department of Odd-fellowship: "William H. Cox, the Lieutenant Governor-elect, is an active member and regular attendant of the subordinate branches of the Order at Maysville. He was Grand Master in 1890-91 and chosen Grand Representative in 1893, from the Grand Encampment of Kentucky to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of which body he is Chairman of the Committee of Finance and one of its most efficient, conservative and popular members. Should he so desire he may, in the near future, become the chief executive officer of the Senate of Odd-fellowship."

There was a time when our erstwhile friend, Henry Ort, was classed as one of the best when it came to handling a gun, but according to the story his bright, little grandson, Ernie, son of Chief of Police H. A. Ort, is telling on the mighty hunter of other days, the old gentleman's eyes are certainly growing dim. His prestige as a slayer of cotton tails and quails has gone glimmering with advancing years and no longer is he the nimrod of old. But then let the grandson tell you about the mishap to his granddad.

WHEN Governor BECKHAM looks toward the new state house across the Kentucky, instead of seeing the "dome" he sees "doom." That must be the handwriting on the wall.

THAT halo encircling the ambrosial brow of Kentucky's noble young executive doesn't appear to hover and float in the ambient air above his saintly head with its usual angelic grace and aplomb.

THE money panic is about over, and it is time now to look around and find the person who started all the trouble. Of course a woman must be at the bottom of it. Who is the guilty one, Mrs. HETTY GREEN, Mrs. MARY BAKER EDDY or Mrs. CARRIE NATION?

FRANKFORT is to have a new afternoon daily paper when the Willson administration is inaugurated. A stock company will be formed, and it is said that there is plenty of money behind the venture. The Capital City certainly needs a representative Republican organ, and it ought to succeed from the start.

IF Mr. TAFT should attain the Presidency, as now seems likely, he will bring to the duties of that office an unprecedented equipment in the way of executive experience and first-hand knowledge of men and things. * * * At the many points of equipment for the Presidency, Mr. TAFT stands beyond question so far ahead of any other man in the country that none other is fairly to be named in rivalry with him.—San Francisco Argonaut.

THERE is no longer any doubt but what the Caleb Powers case will go to the Supreme Court for final adjudication. Even the prosecution will be willing, if not anxious, to unload themselves of this millstone which has been dragging down the Kentucky judiciary and hampering justice for the past eight years. It seems hopeless to give CALEB POWERS a fair trial in any Kentucky Court, owing to the injection of political prejudice engendered by the unhappy Goebel affair. As POWERS nears liberty now it will at least be a triumph of tardy justice when he walks the earth a free man by the mandate of the highest tribunal in the world.

THE recent panicky condition of finances in this country point to one primal "causation"—confidence, which is the great basic and underlying principle of National credit and prosperity. Want of confidence in Mr. BRYAN's political theories and heresies is what makes a very chill run down the spine of Wall street and the great corporations, manufactories and financial interests of the country. The turning of the light of investigation by President ROOSEVELT upon the over-capitalization of the corporations and the gigantic stealings of the trusts and the railway looters of the Harriman stripe, precipitated the present panic, thereby causing the investor to cash his holdings and hoard his gold. Not till the investor has confidence in the integrity of stocks and bonds and securities will the old normal condition of market stability return.

The Bachelor—You're right. It's hard to get away from a woman of that age.

SERVER BREVARD.

Server Brevard died Monday at his home near Fernleaf, after an illness of typhoid fever. He had been ill for some time, but was thought to be improving.

Monday his wife left the baby on the bed beside the father, who was playing with the little one, while she stepped out to get a glass of milk for her husband.

She called to him from an adjoining room, and, receiving no response, hastened to his side to find that death had suddenly ended all.

Deceased was about 20 years of age and is survived by a young wife and baby.

The remains were interred yesterday at Germantown.

MRS. PETER BOUGHNER.

A phone message was received here last night conveying the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Peter Boughner, a former well known and respected citizen, which occurred Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Pogue, in Cincinnati.

The remains will be brought here tomorrow morning on the C. and O. 10 o'clock train and will be taken direct to the Cemetery, where short services will be held by Rev. P. A. Cave of the Christian Church.

Mrs. Boughner was a plaintiff in the suit now being tried in the Bracken Circuit Court in which it is sought to break the will of her brother, Mr. J. W. Bowman, who left his wife his entire estate. Having no children, the legal heirs filed suit claiming a will of more recent date.

ALEX. R. VICTOR.

A. R. Victor, one of the leading citizens of Harrison county, died suddenly Tuesday at his home. Mr. Victor had returned from his farm, where he had been all morning, and after eating dinner complained of feeling ill. His family wanted to send for a physician, but Mr. Victor said that he would feel better soon. It was but a few minutes until he fell from his chair dead. He was about 68 years old and was a prominent member of the Christian Church. He is survived by his wife, who is a sister of Mr. J. P. Maugen of Dover, and a daughter, Mrs. Rodney S. Withers.

Judge Morris in the Powers Trial Soaks Harry Bailey of Cynthiana $300

In the Powers trial at Georgetown yesterday the taking of testimony to show that the Sheriff discriminated against Republicans in summoning the Harrison county Jury venire was continued.

The strongest testimony was given by Harry Bailey, a Republican attorney of Cynthiana. He showed by figures that, while Willson got a majority of the votes in Cynthiana, that the poll of the first special venire showed that there were 93 Democrats and 10 Republicans, and in both there were 210 unmoved, 180 Democrats, 24 Republicans and 6 Prohibitionists.

Bailey was a witness for the defense and gave as his opinion that Democrats were selected for Jury service over Republicans.

Judge Morris declared the witness to be in contempt and fined him $300.

Attorney Smith, for the defense, asked that the Court order the Warden of the Frankfort Penitentiary to bring James Howard and Henry Yontsey, now serving life sentences for their share in the murder, to Georgetown, so they could be consulted by the defense.

Judge Morris said he would have to have a formal request, but that he did not think it in his power to give such an order.

BROAD VIEWS

Of Governor-Elect Willson Now in Washington—Devoted to Good Government in Kentucky

Washington dispatch to Louisville Herald.

Governor-elect Willson came to Washington today to recuperate after his arduous campaign. Mrs. Willson is with him, and they are guests of Associate Justice and Mrs. John M. Harlan. Friday they will all lunch with President and Mrs. Roosevelt, although in the meantime the Governor will call at the executive offices to pay his respects to and have a talk with the President on political matters.

When his attention was called this evening to the report that he had endorsed Charles H. Duty, of Winchester, a revenue agent, for the office of Revenue Collector of the Covington district, Mr. Willson said: "I have not endorsed any one for the Collectorship. Moreover I do not intend to endorse anyone for any Federal office."

"I have decided views on this subject. The people of Kentucky did not elect me Governor to select Postmasters, Collectors and other Federal office-holders. My conception of the verdict at the polls is that I am expected to give my attention to certain state matters, and that the task ought to keep me sufficiently busy."

"I do not intend to complicate the affairs of the state administration with contests over Federal offices. Furthermore, I have no ambition to become a political boss."

When asked concerning the policies he would pursue as Governor, Mr. Willson said: "I have mapped out no particular program, but will take up each problem as it presents itself. Persons who followed the course of the recent campaign understand that I am committed to the improvement of the state roads and schools, to the elimination of politics from the management of the charitable institutions, to fair elections and a square legislative redistricting."

The city limits of the city of Louisville are to be greatly extended so as to annex Douglas Park and Churchill Downs race courses.

REDISTRICTING

The Legislative Districts of Kentucky—Democratic Court of Appeals Demands New Reapportionment

The reapportionment act of 1906 was declared unconstitutional, and then the Court of Appeals laid down this ringing observation, which approaches a demand, and is as follows: "It is no answer to the demand of the appellees that the act of 1906 be declared unconstitutional that it will follow that the act of 1893 must also be declared unconstitutional, because it created unequal representative districts, although in a less degree than that of 1906. The conclusion sought to be drawn does not follow. The act of 1893 has gone into effect, and the Government has been organized under it; to hold it void would be to throw the Government into chaos, and this no Court is required to do. It is now too late to question its validity. The next Legislature must be elected under it, and then we have no doubt the members, impelled by their sense of duty and the obligations of their oath of office, together with that spirit of justice which is the heritage of the race, will redistrict the state as the constitution requires."

Why Have Chaps

The cold, raw winds will soon usher in the season of chaps and red, roughened skin. The variable temperature, alternately too moist and too dry, has heretofore made it almost a hopeless task to try and keep a good complexion during cold weather. This fall and winter, however, you need not be troubled with a single chap if you will defend your complexion with

CHENOWETH'S CREAM LOTION

This is a dainty, creamy, cooling preparation that heals chaps, roughness and the inflamed condition of the skin as if by magic. Even if one cares nothing for the beauty of the complexion it is a comfort and satisfaction to have the skin smooth, and it cannot long be otherwise when Chenoweth's Cream Lotion is used.

Comb Out?

Better be on the safe side. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Hair Vigor. Then do as he says. He knows what is best.

Is your comb telling a story, the story of falling hair? Not a pleasant story, is it? It tends badly. The story we tell is pleasant—the story of Ayer's Hair Vigor. Promptly stops falling hair, destroys dandruff, keeps the scalp healthy. Does not color the hair.

The Hon. M. O. Leighton, consulting hydrographer of the United States Inland Waterways Commission, said at the Wheeling convention that there was no use in allowing floods to endanger navigation and life every year in the Ohio Valley. He advocated the planting of trees throughout the watershed, and gave as another good method for obtaining relief a storage of drainage in the tributaries by means of dams and reservoirs. Mr. Leighton spoke enthusiastically in favor of a system of reservoirs, which not only would prevent floods, but also would assist in maintaining the stage during the seasons of drought and low water.

What Drugs Are Pure?

Do you know? Does your neighbor know? Have you ever talked with anybody not a doctor or druggist who did know?

We Know!

When we tell you that every drug that we use in our prescription work or in putting up any medicines is pure we know that we speak the truth. No guessing at it. We test our drugs and know that they are pure. Remember this when your next prescription is ready to be filled.

WORTH CONSIDERATION

When buying from a jewelry store wouldn't you consider it very important to feel there is absolutely no question about quality? When you buy here you don't pay any more, perhaps less, than in an indifferent store, but you are certain about quality. That point alone is more important in choosing Diamonds, Jewelry, Watches and Silverware than any other merchandise.

Mr. James Cooper and wife, from Bridgeport, spent Sunday with Mrs. Will Stubblefield.
Mr. and Mrs. Hammond from Vanceburg have been the guests of Mrs. A. C. Pollitt last week.
Mrs. Will Gardner came down from Fayette county to visit relatives here and in Fleming county.
A very unique affair in the social circle was the reception given by Mrs. R. L. Cooper Saturday night at her home to her class of young men in the Olivet Sunday-school. As no young ladies belong to the class none of the fair sex were invited. The house was artistically decorated with chrysanthemums, ferns and honey-suckle. Delightful refreshments were served, and from the laughing chorus of the boys all was merry without the trill of the sweet young girl. An important feature of the entertainment was a contest of Bible history in which Mr. Lyle Webster won honors and was presented a handsome red-letter Testament. The contest deserves especial mention for the dignity, intellect and piety she has diffused among her class. Nor, is this true of this one class, other voices, who were young but now older, praise the touch she moulded upon their plastic minds.
J. H. Farris died a few days ago at his home near Tilton, aged 74.

It trimming trees it should be remembered that a wound made by cutting close to the trunk will soon heal over, says the Farmers Home Journal, while a wound made by cutting a limb a few inches from the trunk leads to decay and may result in the loss of the tree.

Our Colored Citizens.

On last evening Rev. Gilliam of Columbus, O., gave a lecture to a large audience at the M. E. Church in Washington, Ky.
The subject of his lecture was "A Christian Education; the Hope of Our Race and Nation."
Three propositions—No man has a right to claim the right of citizenship, who does not contribute something to the material wealth, moral character and intellectual status of his community.
Rev. Gilliam's lecture was strong and forcible.
After the lecture subscriptions were taken amounting to about one hundred dollars for the purpose of aiding in the erection of a college in the state of Kentucky for colored people.
Excellent music appropriate to the occasion was furnished by the orchestra composed of the Warner Bros. and Joseph G. Holmes.

IN THE CHARACTER OF THE Men's, Young Men's and Boys' CLOTHING

This store fulfills the highest possible mission of a modern retail establishment, in fact, our ambition is not so much to have the biggest business as it is to have the best business in the city. If bigness comes, as it often does from a policy of creating a new standard of quality, then we accept bigness as the result of our efforts rather than the object of them. If you want distinction in your clothes, a style and pattern that will separate you from ordinary dressers, appearance that gives an air of refinement, there is but one store to visit.

OUR CLOTHING IS NO BETTER than our SHOES

For we are the leaders in both lines. The Crossette, the Stetson, the M. & K., the three best Shoes made. Prices range FROM $3 to $6.

MORE DAMAGE SUITS

Echoes of the Railroad Wreck Near Flemingsburg Last May

Two more suits for damages, growing out of the wreck near Flemingsburg last May, have been filed against C. F. and S. E. Railroad Company.

In the Federal Court at Covington suit has been filed for $25,000 for Harry Thomas, the infant boy who was in the wreck.

The petition alleges that from the effect of the injuries received the child suffers from "railroad spine," which causes it to go backward instead of forward when it attempts to walk. It is also said that the child when on a streetcar goes into convulsions from fear.

The child's father, Harry Thomas, was one of the victims killed in the wreck.

Another new suit is for $10,500 by Richard Rawlings, whose daughter, Ethel Rawlings, sustained numerous cuts and bruises in the wreck.

Mt. Sterling will shortly have a free mail delivery system established in the city.

NIGHTS OF UNREST.

No Sleep, No Rest, No Peace for the Sufferers from Kidney Troubles.

No peace for the kidney sufferer—Pain and distress from morn to night. Get up with a lame back, Twinges of backache bother you all day, Dull aching breaks your rest at night, Urinary disorders add to your misery. Get at the cause—cure the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills will work the cure. They're for the kidneys only—Have made great cures in Maysville.

M. C. Chisholm, Constable in District No. 2, living at 343 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills positively cured me of kidney trouble and I do not hesitate to give them the strongest kind of recommendation. I had been troubled with too frequent action of the kidney secretions and it disturbed my rest nights. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills I procured them and noticed an improvement in my condition from the start. My trouble was soon entirely cured. This was some five years ago, and I have had no return of it since. Anyone suffering from difficulties arising from disordered kidneys can make no mistake by using Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box; Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
